much later than the book had written, the foregoing Title. It is written at both ends, but on what is properly the FIRST leaf are written two Affidavits of the Registrars elect, according to the Statute. Then follow five leaves of Births, Burials, and Marriages, and one shamefully torn loose leaf, which seems to be one of many torn out after the fourth leaf, then after two more, very many leaves, perhaps more than now remain altogether have been cut out, fragments only of the inner margin remain. The rest of the book, nine leaves, begins at the other end, & contains an account of Church briefs for fires & the amount collected under each, from 1694 to 1744.

Charles Hanne, on 12 March 1749; but from 1778, the date of the commencement of the second volume, and, singularly
